

Dr. Gabor Laszlo is an assistant professor of Keleti Faculty of Business and Management at Óbuda University. He received his PhD from Budapest University of Technology and Economics, Faculty of Economic and Social Sciences, Doctoral School in Business and Management. His research interests focus on open source software and its applications in the public sector, and also e-government and e-learning.

In addition to teaching and research Dr. Gabor Laszlo is involved in the field of educational plagiarism prevention. His work contributed to the introduction of integrated plagiarism prevention system with the Institutional Digital Repository.

He has visited Canada many times as conference attendee and presenter while it became his favourite country. This experience inspired him to go into Canadian Studies with relation to his professional life. Thank to his endless dedication he received a research grant within “Canadian Studies Faculty Research Program” (2007) and also “Partnerships for Tomorrow Program II.” (2005).

He has a membership to various professional associations.

Contact details:

laszlo.gabor@kgk.uni-obuda.hu

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/gaborlaszlo>