

CURRICULUM VITAE

KRISZTINA KODÓ, M.A., Ph.D., Habil.
drkkodo@gmail.com;

Personal information:

Place of birth: Budapest, Hungary
Citizenship: Hungarian

Languages:

English completely fluent (Excellent command)
German, Dutch, Spanish

Education:

2014 March Title "habil doctor" granted by Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest.
2002 Ph.D. in English and American literatures.
1987-1992 Graduated from the Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Humanities, Budapest in June 1992 with two majors: English and Dutch Languages and Literatures. MA thesis titled: Emily Carr: Fiction and Art.

Employment:

2002- Full-time Senior lecturer at János Kodolányi University, Dept. of English Language and Literature.
2015 Sept.- Head of the Department of English Language and Literature at Kodolányi University, Budapest Institute, Hungary.

Conferences (past 3 years):

2020 Feb. 11th Brno International Conference of English, American and Canadian Studies "Breaking the Boundaries", Brno, Czech Republic, from 12 - 14 February 2020. Title of paper: Transcending Cultural Boundaries and Expressions of (Self) Portraits in the Artistic Presentations of Emily Carr and István Fújkin

2020 April KJU International Week Conference April 2, 2020, hosted by the Department of English Language and Literature titled "Stories Across Time and Space".

2021 Szept. EFACIS 2021, Sept. 1-4., Prague. Charles University, "Interfaces and Dialogues". Title: "Myth and Tradition and the Hybridisation of Identity"

2021 nov. KJU Dept. conference 5 Nov. title: "Paradox and perspectives of Canadian Native humour"

2021 nov. KGRE and ELTE Canadian Studies Conference - Alice Munro at 90' title: "Hyper-Realism Through Multi-Levelled Storytelling In Alice Munro's Short Fiction"

- 2022 March Global Englishes; "Seizing the Day": Current Research in Global Englishes; International conference, KJU, Dept. of English. Interview with Lisa McInerney.
- 2022 Oct. Canadian Landscapes, CEACS Conference, ELTE, Pázmány Univ., Károli G. Ref. Univ., Budapest Economic University. title: "Indigenous Landscapes: Probing Native Humour through Arts and Literature"
- 2023 June AIW, American Indian Workshop international conference, ELTE Budapest Hungary. Title of paper: Looking Towards a Future Through Native Humour

Professional associations (memberships):

- Central European Association for Canadian Studies (CEACS)
- Budapest Centre for Irish Studies (BCIS)
- European Federation for the Associations of Centers of Irish Studies (EFACIS)
- The Fifth Province Irish blog (2021) - <https://www.thefifthprovince.hu/>;
- Foundation for Inter-culture – multicultural and intercultural connections
- Association for the study of American Indian literatures (ASAIL)

List of publications link in MTMT (Hungarian Academic Register of Publications):

<https://vm.mtmt.hu/search/slist.php?lang=0&AuthorID=10013991>

Personal Background/ Experience

teaching, translating, interpreting, organizing conferences, workshops, roundtable discussions, university events, podcasts, cofounder of The Fifth Province Irish blog (2021) - <https://www.thefifthprovince.hu/>; this project is a communication channel of Irish studies in Hungary supported by the Foundation for Inter-culture – multicultural and intercultural connections.